WELCOME TO RATTRAY'S LODGE

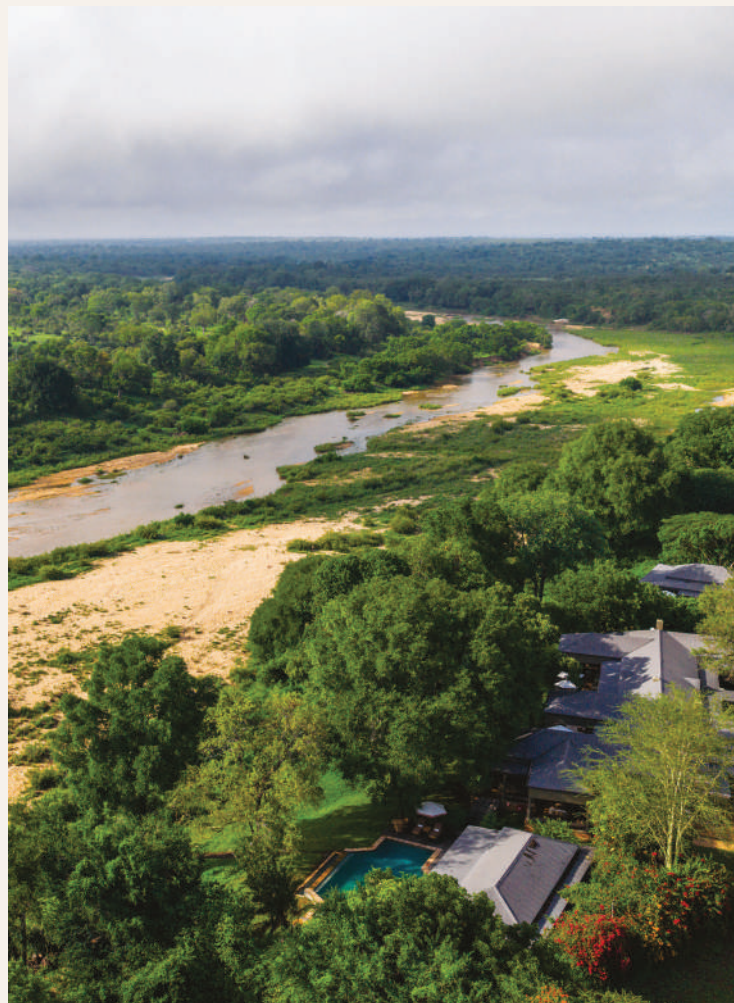

Rattray's Lodge is named in honour of Mike and Norma Rattray, whose vision helped shape MalaMala Game Reserve into one of Africa's most respected private wildlife reserves – a legacy that thrives today.

There is a calm seclusion here. The urgency of everyday life gives way to the steady pulse of the bush. Set within a lush, forest-like setting, the lodge feels like a grand safari home, rich with photographs, antiques and well-chosen objects that have earned their place. Traditional pieces sit alongside contemporary wildlife art, creating depth without fuss, and a sense of story that endures.

A Sense Of Home

Rattray's is the sort of lodge where you settle in quickly. The lounge invites long reading hours, the library has weight and quiet, and the historic bar draws you in before dinner. Photographs and antiques are part of the atmosphere, giving the place its lived-in warmth and its sense of continuity.

Quiet Sophistication

Here, guests unwind in a peaceful, secluded setting where the bush is never competing with the lodge for attention. With no children under 16, the mood remains calm and assured, suited to travellers who value privacy, heritage, and the kind of safari where time is left unforced and evenings can unfold slowly.

An Exceptional Safari

Rattray's is known for the quality of its guiding and the consistency of its sightings. Drives feel intimate and considered, shaped by experienced guides who read behaviour as much as tracks. It is not about rushing from one moment to the next, but staying long enough for the wilderness to show you what is really happening.

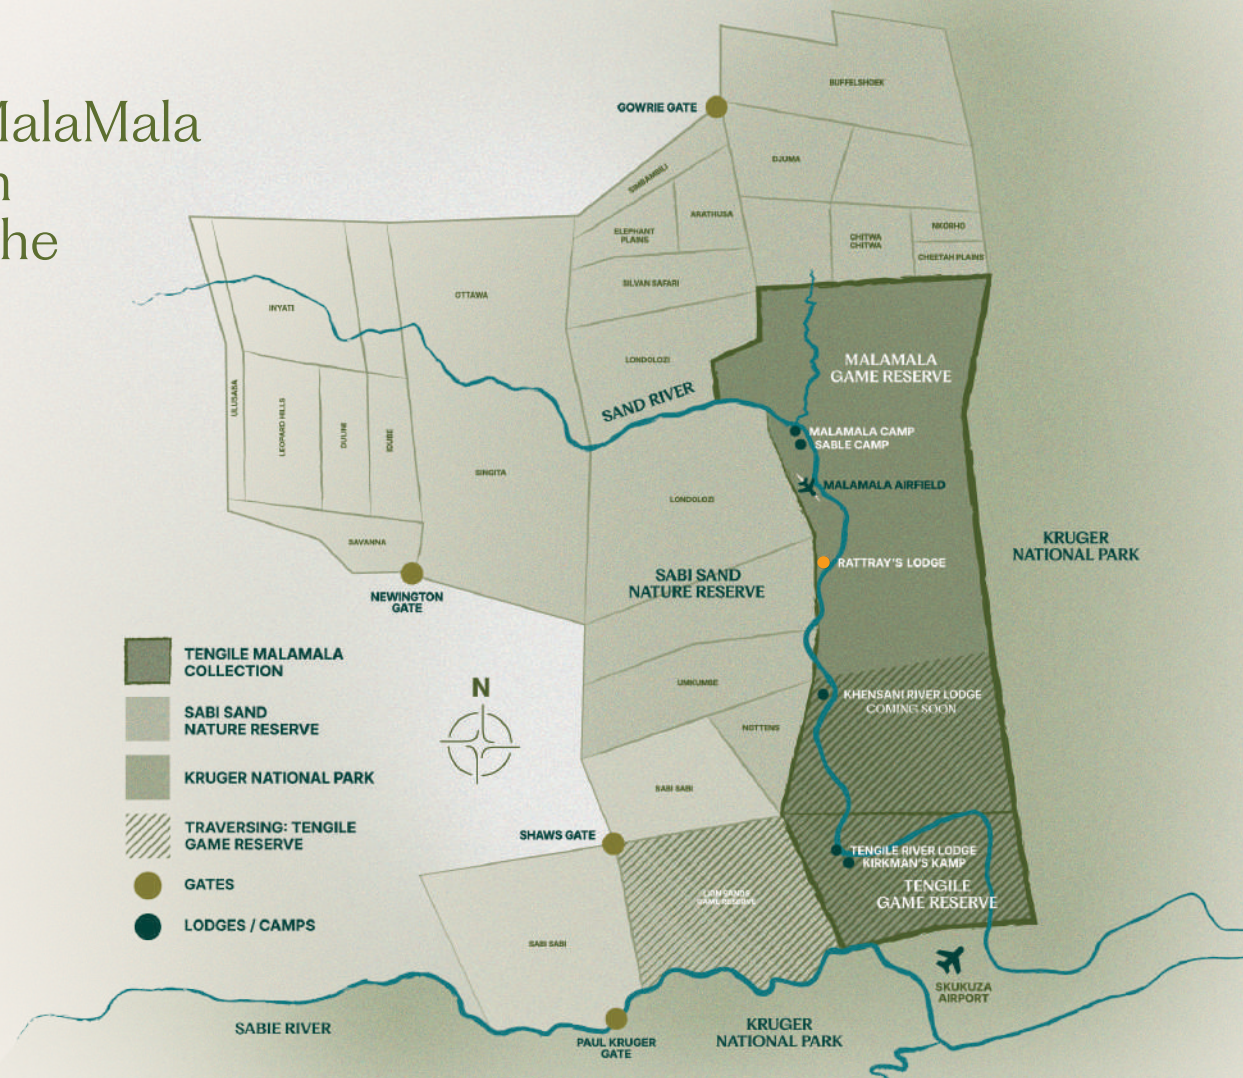

GETTING THERE

Rattray's Lodge forms part of the MalaMala Game Reserve, positioned between the Sabi Sand Nature Reserve and the Kruger National Park. With a 13,500-hectare (33,000-acre) traversing area, this is a vast, unfenced wilderness where wildlife moves freely across the landscape.
