PRIVATE VILLAS

Spier Hotel's two exclusive-use villas are located on the edge of the hotel village in a quiet corner of the farm with private road access.

In addition to the hotel's 80 luxury rooms and suites, these villas offer an elevated level of privacy and comfort for families or small groups seeking a more secluded stay.

Bespoke interiors with a sophisticated farmhouse feel showcase artisanal craftsmanship and include handcrafted contemporary furniture, antique finds, heirloom pieces from the farm owners' private collection, and original artworks from the Spier Arts Trust.

Each villa has a heated pool and outdoor entertainment area set in a walled, landscaped garden. Fully serviced, these stand-alone three-bedroom residences combine the space of a private home with all the advantages of a hotel stay. A dedicated service team includes a private chef, offering guests the freedom to tailor every aspect of their stay.

Generously proportioned and thoughtfully appointed, the ground floor of each villa encourages a relaxed lifestyle with an open-plan dining room, living room and fully equipped kitchen. There is also a pantry stocked with snacks and drinks, and a separate scullery. A guest cloakroom and an en-suite bedroom (king bed) complete the accommodation on the ground floor. From the bedroom and living areas, French doors lead onto a verandah. Upstairs, there are two additional en suite bedrooms (one a king, the other a twin). All three bedrooms in the villa have spacious bathrooms with deep free-standing tubs, walk-in showers, and cabochon-detail floors.
