An invitation to Cape Town

A carefully restored National Monument from the early 1800s, the hotel offers 29 rooms and suites, and a private villa. Here, years of heritage sit effortlessly alongside modern sophistication.

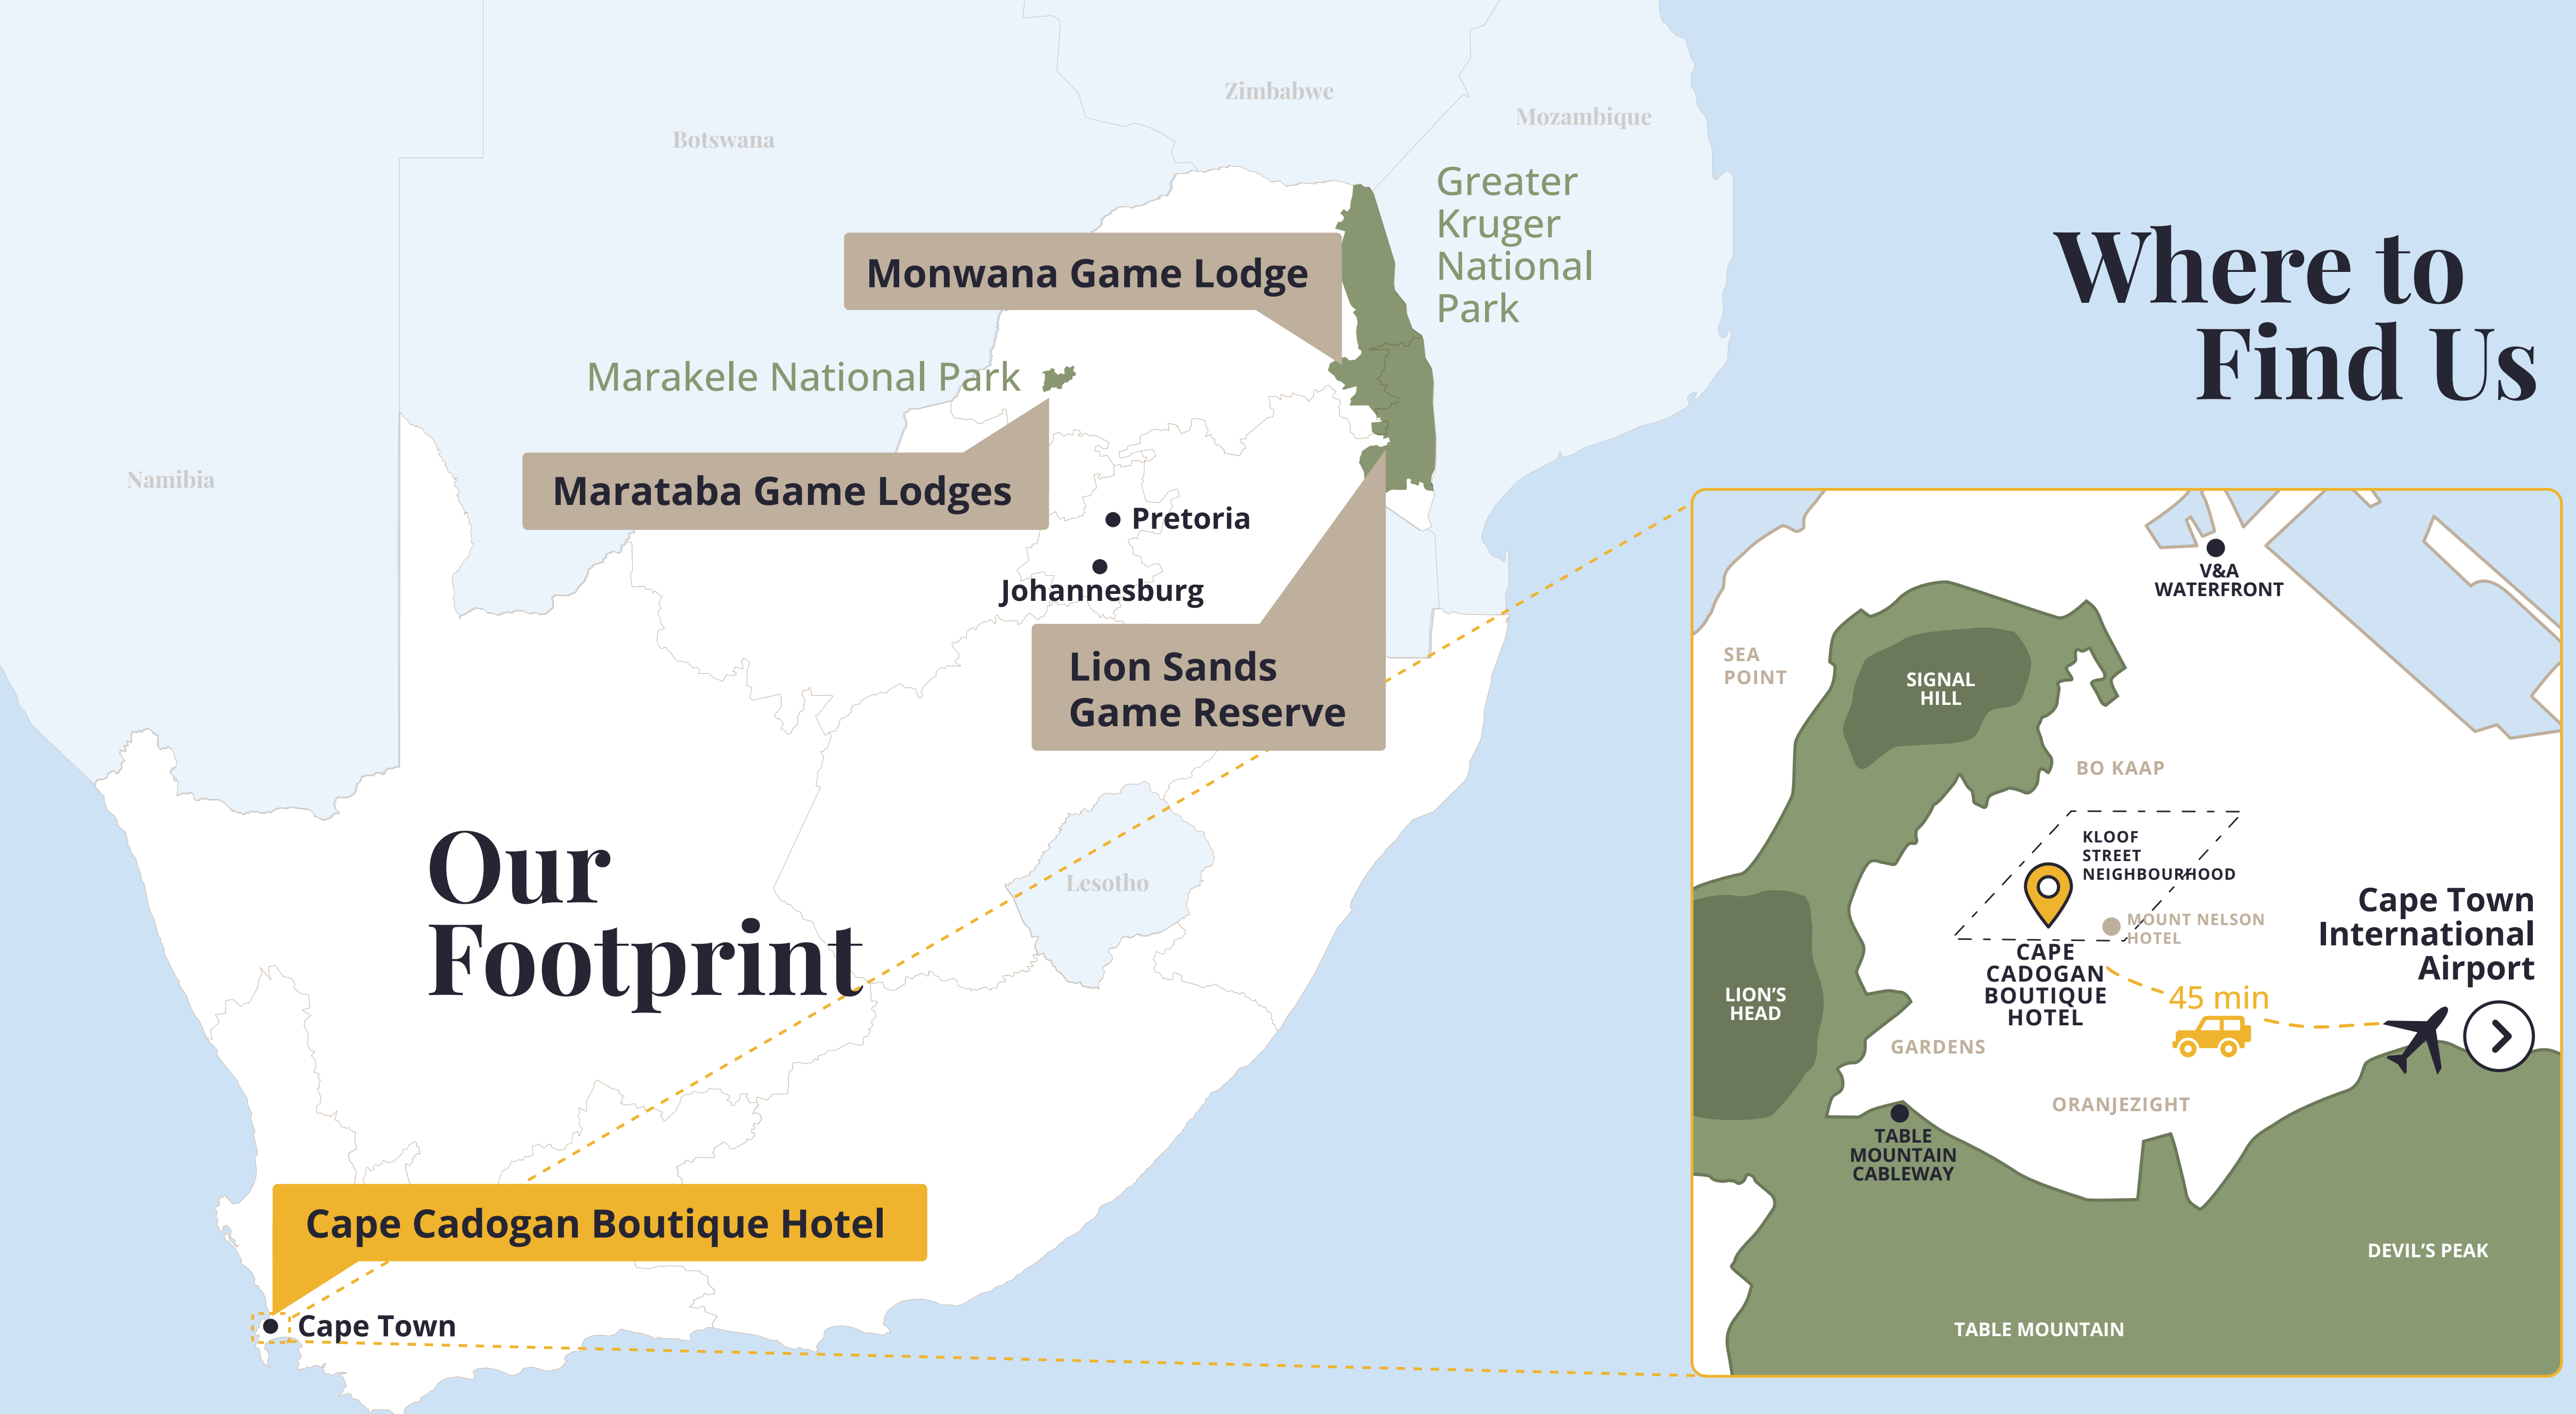

You'll find Cape Cadogan in the heart of Cape Town's Kloof Street Neighbourhood, where the Mother City unfolds around you.

Every day brings fresh adventures and the places to pause in between. Your stay unfolds with thoughtful care, shaped by a team who take genuine pride in what they do, whether that's sharing their favourite local spots or knowing exactly when you need space to simply be.

Impact that ripples

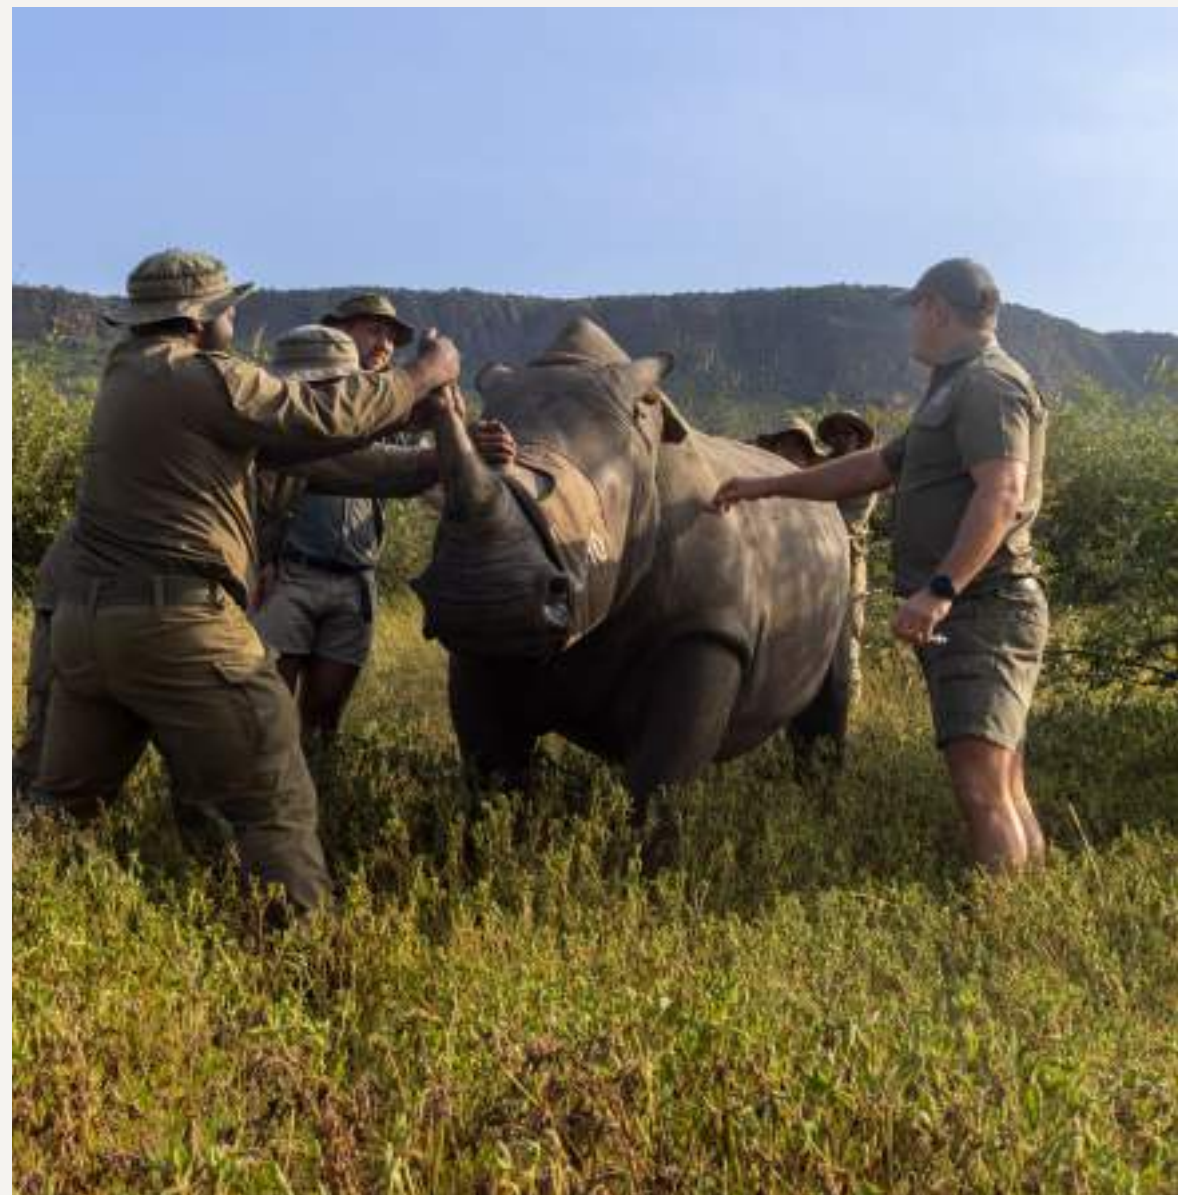

COLLECTIVELY CREATING POSITIVE, MEANINGFUL, AND SUSTAINABLE CHANGE

Through the MORE Collection Impact Fund, every guest stay contributes to four key areas: Health and Wellbeing, Resource Sustainability, Education and Training, and Investing in Local Communities.

Across Marataba Game Lodges, this work supports field guide training, local sourcing, conservation support, and long-term investment in the people and communities connected to the reserve.

A multi-level wooden treehouse built around a large, gnarled tree trunk. The structure features a staircase with warm-toned wooden steps and railings, and several platforms. The interior and exterior are lit with warm, glowing lights, creating a cozy atmosphere. Two people are standing on the uppermost platform, looking out over a dense forest at dusk. The sky is a mix of deep blue and soft orange from the setting sun.

MORE Collection

MORE Collection, led by custodian and CEO Robert More, is a fourth-generation family business with roots dating back to 1933.

What began with one family’s connection to the Sabie River has grown into a collection of safari lodges, a boutique hotel, and private villas across South Africa - from the Sabi Sand and Greater Kruger to the Waterberg and Cape Town.

Although the collection has grown over time, it remains grounded in the relationships, places and the care that have shaped it from the beginning.

Wherever you join us, you’ll find thoughtful hospitality, a deep sense of belonging, and people who genuinely care about making every stay feel personal.

We look forward to sharing these remarkable parts of South Africa with you.
