

The magic of the dark Late Night Game Drives

Join us after dinner for a thrilling adventure under the moonlit sky, offering a heightened chance of encountering predators that come alive in the cover of darkness. The late hours provide an unique opportunity to witness the elusive and rarer creatures of the wild, such as the enigmatic pangolin, as they emerge from their daytime hideouts. With the serenity of the night enhancing your senses, this experience promises an unforgettable journey into the heart of the animal kingdom, unveiling a world of nocturnal wonders.

Come and discover the magic of the wilderness after dark, where each moment is filled with anticipation and the potential for extraordinary wildlife encounters. An exhilarating experience that takes you beyond the ordinary.
