

Recommended Battlefield Enthusiast Itinerary

Arrival Day

- Arrive midday, enjoy a light lunch al fresco & check into your cottage.
- Put your walking boots on, and set out on the Artillery Trail (4km) to explore the historic gun positions on Three Tree Hill. Learn about the pivotal events leading up to the Anglo Boer War.
- Return in time for a refreshing shower before coming through for a delicious farm-fresh 3-course meal after choosing an award-winning South African wine from our underground cellar.

Day 1

- After a hearty breakfast, venture to the Colenso Battlesite area, where seven Victoria Crosses were awarded - won in a single morning's fight contributing to two of only three father and son VC's ever to be awarded.
- Stop at Frere - the site where Winston Churchill was famously captured.
- Enjoy a picnic lunch amidst history before delving into the stories of the Ladysmith Siege at Wagon Hill, Caesar's Camp, and Platrand.
- Visit the Siege Museum for deeper insights.

Day 1 continued...

- Return to the lodge just in time for a breathtaking sunset and a sumptuous dinner.

Day 2

- Start your day early with breakfast before heading to the summit of Spioenkop, where the gripping tale of the battle will unfold.
- Return to the lodge for a relaxing late lunch, with the afternoon free to explore the 3000 book Molly Blackburn library, where more recent history of the country unfolds.
- Alternatively, take a stroll on one of the many well-marked walking trails.
- As evening falls, gather around the boma fire for drinks and share stories before enjoying another exquisite dinner.

Departure Day

- Enjoy a leisurely breakfast, after which you can choose to go out one of the many self-guided walking trails on the farm, stretching your legs before your onward journey.
- As you depart the lodge, you can choose to visit the Rangeworthy Cemetery, 2km along the exit road.
