Key Highlights

Accommodations

The rooms of Tarangire Treetops are one-of-a-kind. Elevated platforms place guests among the baobab and marula trees, creating the feel of a luxury treehouse.

Location

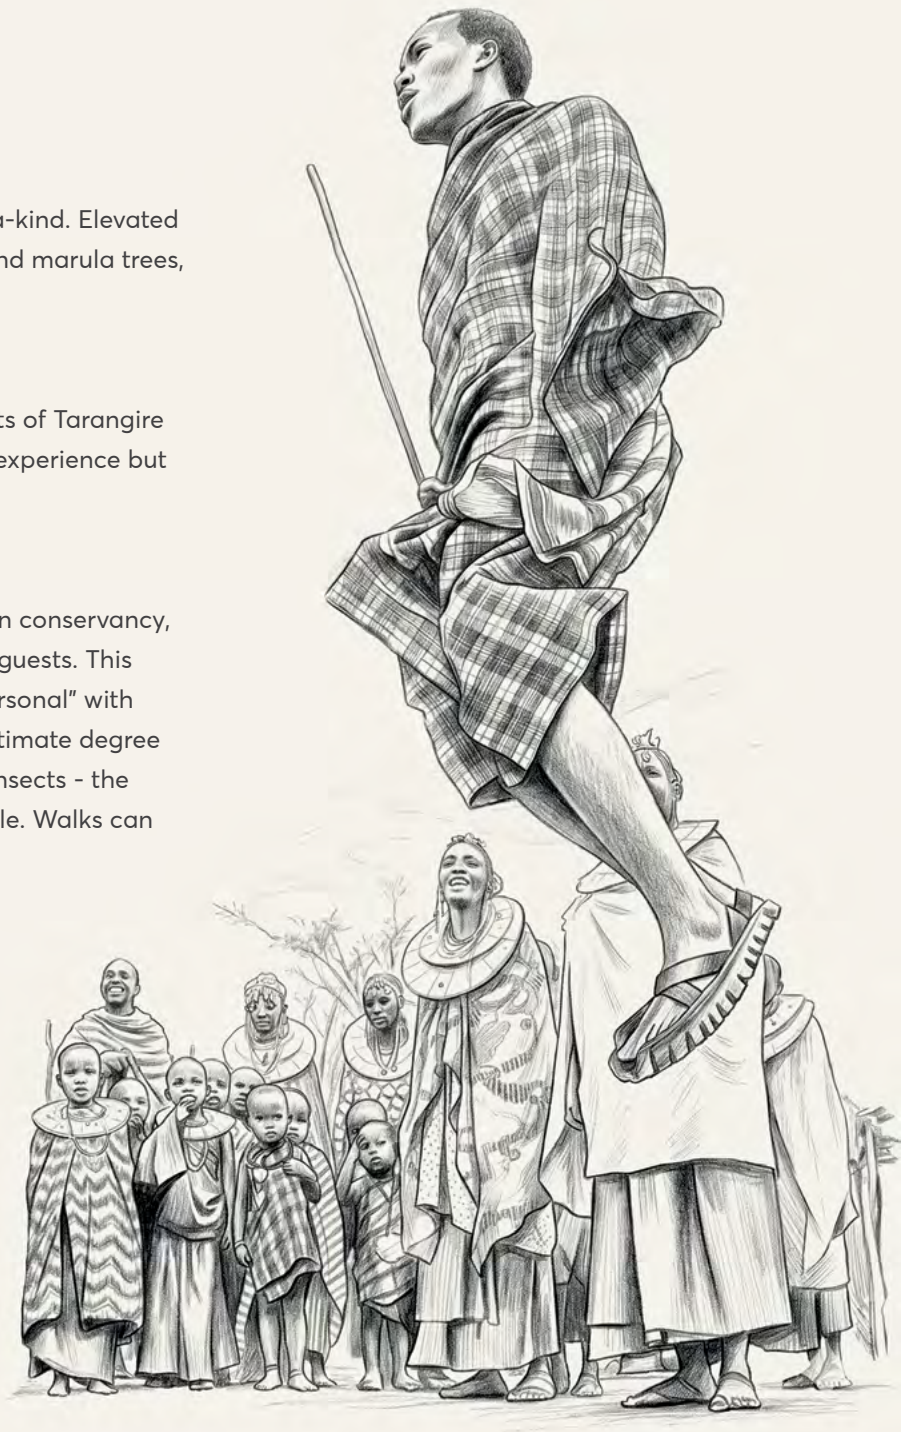

Situated in its own private conservancy, guests of Tarangire Treetops enjoy a secluded and private safari experience but with easy access to Tarangire National Park.

Bush Walks

Located outside the National Park in Randilen conservancy, the camp is able to conduct bush walks with guests. This activity allows guests to get "up close and personal" with nature, and experience the bush to a more intimate degree - the flora, the fauna, the animal tracks, the insects - the things that can be missed from a game vehicle. Walks can be a relaxing ramble, or an energetic hike.

Night Game Drives

A night drive in the African bush affords the opportunity to see an array of creatures who prefer the cover of night. From wide-eyed lesser galagos, to ambling porcupines and elusive leopards, the African bush hosts a different assortment of creatures after dark.

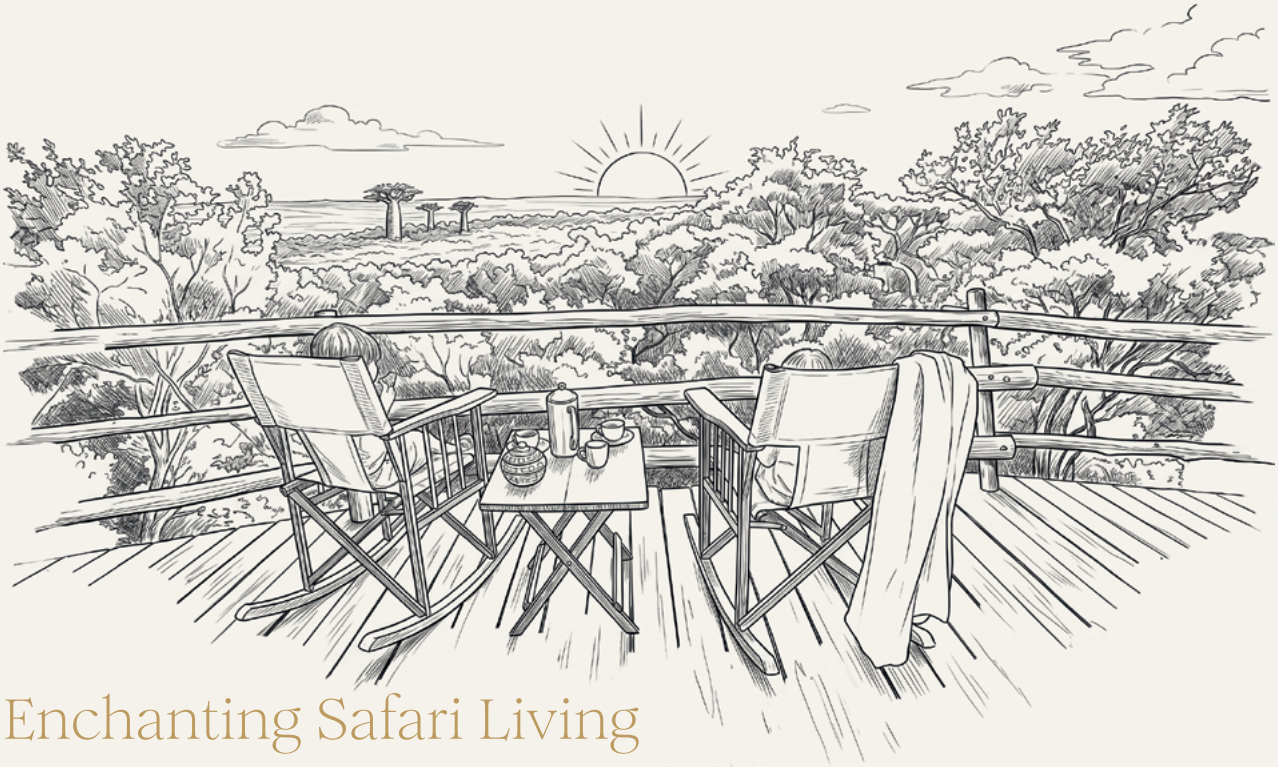

Enchanting Safari Living

Tarangire Treetops is a celebration of childhood dreams reimagined with sophisticated luxury, centred around a magnificent, thousand-year-old baobab tree. Each elevated room is built high into the canopy, featuring an expansive, open-faced design that offers an unmatched sense of freedom and a bird's-eye view of the Tarangire plains. Merging rustic textures with high-end comfort, these "treehouses" serve as a vaulted sanctuary where the wild spirit of the bush meets the quiet elegance of life among the branches.

- 20 Tree Houses (69.0 m²): Elevated canvas-and-thatch suites built on wooden platforms, all convertible between double and twin configurations.
- Wheelchair-Friendly Rooms: Rooms 7, 13, 16, and 17 offer improved ramp access.
- Private Balconies: All rooms feature private balconies with views over the treetops and the lodge's watering hole.

The rooms are spaced generously across the private conservancy to ensure absolute privacy - allowing guests to drift off to the sounds of the African night from a truly unique and lofty perspective.

A sense of wonder permeates throughout Tarangire Treetops, where the lodge is built seamlessly into the silhouettes of age-old baobab trees, offering beautifully appointed retreats that blend barefoot luxury with the breathtaking scale of the Tanzanian bush.
