Set in the heart of Botswana's Okavango Delta within the NG35 concession, offers a refined safari experience that blends luxury with nature in one of Africa's most iconic landscapes. Accommodating up to 38 guests in beautifully appointed tented suites overlooking the Gomoti Lagoon, the lodge features elevated decks, en-suite bathrooms, solar power, and private verandas for immersive comfort. The spacious main area includes a thatched lounge and dining space, a well-stocked bar, and a sun-drenched pool, while a long wooden walkway leads guests to a scenic firepit area for starlit evenings. As part of the citizen-owned AfriTourism Collection, Gomoti River Lodge emphasizes sustainability, authenticity, and community involvement. Children aged 7 and older are welcome, with family-friendly accommodation available at nearby Gomoti Villas.

Guests at Gomoti can enjoy a wide array of activities, including morning and afternoon game drives, mokoro excursions, and seasonal boating safaris. Full-day trips to Moremi Game Reserve, cultural interactions, birdwatching, and in-camp wildlife viewing add depth to the experience, while optional extras such as night drives, guided bush walks, helicopter scenic flights, and catch-and-release fishing offer further adventure. Access to the lodge is flexible, with road transfers from Maun, helicopter flights for panoramic views, or self-drive options for 4x4 vehicles. A special offer includes a complimentary transfer with a three-night stay. Whether arriving by land or air, Gomoti River Lodge promises an unforgettable journey into the wild - delivering luxury, adventure, and a profound connection to the Okavango's untamed beauty.
