LOCATION

- Olô Bé Lodge, Andavadoaka, Madagascar
- Andavadoaka is a small fishing village located on the southwest coast of Madagascar in the Morombe District, 45 km south of the town of Morombe. The village lies on the edge of a shallow lagoon protected from the open ocean by a series of fringing and submerged barrier reefs that support substantial coral growth
- Daily flights arrive at the Toliara International Airport
- Transfers are available on request (170km - 6 hours travel time)

OVERVIEW

Olô Bé Lodge awaits the curious travellers and experience-collectors in Andavadoaka, Madagascar – 6 hours from Toliara Airport.

Set on the South-west coast and away from the crowds.

Guests can look forward to deep-sea fishing and sailing in pirogues towards breath-taking sunrises and sunsets. Explore Baobab forests and mangroves between days of endless fishing, beach comas, cold drinks and fresh seafood. You can couple them with kayaking, snorkelling, and surfing.

Olô Bé Lodge is uniquely built; the lodge is a work of art made up of natural materials and built by the local community.

Olô Bé Lodge has 7 rooms that line the island estate and overlook the lagoon towards the sunrise and the Indian Ocean towards the sunset.

A flamboyant main hall, a large kitchen open to the bar and the lounge, and two large terraces that offer inspiring views.
