* CESW Levy - Etendeka Lodge Company is a joint venture agreement with the Omatendeka and Anabeb Communal Conservancies. This venture is committed to protecting the indigenous and often endangered fauna and flora of the region and help drive economic development for the community. The Conservation Levy has been implemented to support these efforts. In addition, we focus on sustainability and giving back, placing community and conservation at the core of our priority, to uplift, to restore and to have significant influence on the Namibian people and the environment around us and these funds are also put towards these causes. Guests contribute these levies as part of their stay at Etendeka. The CESW Levy includes VAT.

Starting time from the Etendeka parking area at Palmwag Lodge at 16h00!

The Etendeka Overnight Hiking Trail Experience promises to be an authentic and exhilarating engagement with nature. Trek through one of Namibia’s most remote and untouched landscapes on foot, have sundowners as you look out over never-ending vistas of ancient rock formations and sleep under a blanket of stars. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to connect with nature.

Meet at Palmwag Lodge at 16h00, hand your luggage over to the driver who will safely deliver it to your 1st overnight camp, River Camp. Start your walk from Palmwag Lodge into the Etendeka Concession for approximately 2 to 3 hours to River Camp.

View the full 3 or 4 day Etendeka Hiking Trail Experience itinerary on the included documentation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Children's policy

We regret that the Etendeka Hiking Trails is not suitable for children under 12 years of age.

Much of the charm of Etendeka lies in its tranquil wilderness setting and may therefore not always be appreciated by all children. It is a condition therefore that adults accompanying children 12 years and older must take full responsibility for the conduct and safety of their children.

Fitness level required

Anyone who is in a reasonably fit condition and is capable of walking continuously for 6 to 7 hours in the heat of the day should be able to undertake this adventure. It remains the guest's responsibility to ensure that they are healthy enough and fit enough to undertake this activity.

Please refer to the Fact and Information sheets for further details.
