PRIVATE WILDERNESS INFORMATION

Private Wilderness is the new exclusive safari destination within the renowned Lewa Wildlife Conservancy. The Craig family have welcomed guests since 1972, and now they warmly invite you to enjoy a slice of this legacy, as your own.

This private property comprises of five individual thatched cottages, set along the tranquil valley of the Eastern Marania River, each with their own picturesque view over the hills beyond. Complete with en-suite bathrooms, they can be arranged as either double or twin configuration, accommodating a maximum of ten guests simultaneously.

The main area sits nestled on the lower edge of valley and the open-front design provides beautiful views of the river below. Private Wilderness features a refined dining space, inviting living areas and a refreshing swimming pool, offering ample opportunity to relax and immerse into your natural surroundings.

With 64,000 acres of pristine wilderness to explore, you are presented with unparalleled safari opportunities, showcasing Kenya's finest. Diversify your adventure with a range of activities, from traditional 4x4 game drives to immersive bush walks, and even serene camel and horseback rides. Elevate your perspective and take to the skies with Air Wilderness' Scenic Flights over the diverse landscapes of Northern Kenya or delve into the wonders of the Ngare Ndare Forest for a day of canopy exploration and waterfall discoveries.

At the core of our ethos lies sustainability, driving every aspect of our operation. At Private Wilderness, our camp is powered by solar energy, minimising our environmental footprint. We cultivate an organic vegetable garden to supply as much of our fresh produce as possible, while our dairy cows and chickens enjoy free-range living. It's a wonderful destination to indulge in a farm-fresh lunch, crafted from ingredients sourced and harvested directly from our Shamba.
