TERMS & CONDITIONS 2026

OFFBEAT SAFARIS HOLDINGS LTD

The following terms and conditions which are subject to change without notice apply to the services offered by and rates issued by Offbeat Safaris Holdings Ltd (“the Company”). It is a condition of making a reservation with the Company that these terms and conditions are accepted in full and non-adherence to our terms and conditions may lead to withdrawal of contract rates and release of bookings.

KENYAN LAW:

Kenyan Law: It is a condition of making a reservation with the Company that the client agrees that these terms and conditions constitute a contract under Kenyan Law and the client agrees irrevocably to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Kenyan Courts and that in the event of any dispute or action of any kind against the Company that dispute or action shall be heard under Kenyan Law in the Kenyan Courts.

SUPPLEMENTARY CONDITIONS

TRAVEL AND HOLIDAY INSURANCE:

It is a condition of booking that all clients (including individuals, companies, and other legal entities) hold comprehensive travel and holiday insurance, which must be in place prior to payment of the deposit to confirm the booking.

The insurance must provide adequate cover for, at a minimum: medical expenses, emergency evacuation and repatriation, trip cancellation and curtailment, personal liability, and loss, theft, or damage to personal belongings. Insurance must be suitable for travel to remote areas and for all activities included in the itinerary.

By paying the required deposit, clients confirm that appropriate travel and holiday insurance is in place.

Travel in Africa, and particularly participation in a safari, involves an inherent element of risk. The Company, its officers and employees shall not be liable for any loss, damage, expense or cost arising from any incident involving clients, or last minute cancellation, while using services provided by the Company or by any third parties contracted by the Company.

VISA RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY:

It is the sole responsibility of every client to ensure that all necessary travel documents, including valid passports (no less than 6 months validity) and visas, are obtained in good time prior to departure. The Company cannot be held liable for any delays, cancellations, or issues with a booking that arise as a result of visa complications, including but not limited to denied entry, processing delays, or insufficient documentation. No refunds or compensation will be provided for any part of the trip missed due to visa-related matters.

BOOKINGS TERMS:

All provisional bookings are given an automatic expiry date (normally 2 weeks from booking date). You are required to confirm the booking prior to the expiry date to avoid automatic release of the booking. If you require more time to confirm the booking, the expiry date may be extended on request. Bookings are confirmed upon receipt of a 20% deposit of the total reservation cost. The balance is payable in full 45 days prior to arrival.

IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION:

More than 120 days before arrival: the 20% deposit is refunded, net of bank charges.

120 - 46 days prior to arrival: the 20% deposit is forfeited.

45 days and 30 days prior to arrival: 50% of the full booking value is forfeited, the balance will be net of bank charges.

Less than 30 days prior to arrival and no shows: 100% of the full booking value is forfeited.

*No refund will be given for clients who join a safari but leave before its completion.

Amendments and cancellations are only effective on receipt of written notification.

Should an amended booking fall in a different season, new season rates will apply.

Offbeat Safaris Holdings Ltd reserves the right to review published rates in the event of currency fluctuations or increases in taxes/levies/charges and costs that are beyond our control.
