

Ghoha Hills Savuti Lodge TRANSFER INFORMATION

Ghoha Hills Savuti Lodge is located about 150km south west of Kasane, and 230km north east of Maun. It can be easily accessed by self-driving guests from either direction, and road transfers are available from Kasane to the lodge. The Savuti Airstrip is about 40 minutes from Ghoha Hills Lodge, and is popularly utilised by fly-in guests.

By AIR:

Guests flying to Ghoha Hills will arrive at the Savuti Airstrip, which is about a 40-minute drive from the lodge. Should you arrive by air, your guide/host from Ghoha Hills will be ready and waiting to greet you at the airstrip when you land. The flight to Savuti Airstrip from Kasane takes 25 minutes, while the flight from Maun takes 45 minutes.

By ROAD:

There are road transfers available between Kasane and Ghoha Hills – a drive that can take approximately 3 hours, allowing time for game viewing en route. Self-driving guests can undertake the journey in a 4x4 following these given directions:

GPS Co-ordinates:

S 18°26'11.11" E 24°13'33.28"

Directions from Kasane to Ghoha Hills Savuti Lodge:

- Drive south from Kasane to Kachikau on a tarred road for a distance of 99km, passing through Sedudu Gate, Ngoma Gate, Mabele village, and Kavimba before reaching Kachikau (approximately 90 minute drive).
- The tarred road becomes a sand road as you exit Kachikau and enter the Chobe Forest Reserve.
- Follow the road for approximately 40km until reaching a T-Junction where you can turn right to Linyanti and left for Ghoha Gate.
- Turn left at the T-Junction and continue for about 7km before reaching Ghoha Gate on your right.
- Turn and enter the gate, sign in to the park, and continue straight for about 8km until you see the sign for Ghoha Hills Savuti Lodge on the left.
- Turn left, following the signs to Ghoha Hills, ascend the steep driveway, and arrive at the lodge.

