

Within the Chobe National Park lies the fascinating game rich Savuti area. Ghoha Hills Savuti Lodge is ideally positioned on the edges of the Ghoha Hills overlooking the Savuti Plains.

Designed and built to blend into the natural surrounding environment and the elevated position assures spectacular unparalleled 180 degree views.

The understated elegance of the décor, the views and the attention to your comfort is a perfect mix to make your safari extra special.

The thatched main area has an open dining area, bar and various small lounges overlooking an active waterhole.

We have a refreshing pool, gym and a spa to take care of the mind, body & soul.

Activities are morning and afternoon drives on our private network of roads and enjoying a sundowner under the majestic Baobab Trees or in the hide overlooking the waterhole.

Day excursions are done to the Savuti Marsh, Baobab Theatre, Bushman Rock Paintings & Pimple Hills.

Ghoha Hills has Eco Tourism certification for their low impact on the environment and the latest solar & waste disposal systems in place.

GENERAL TRAVEL INFO

MALARIA

Malaria is prevalent during the mid to late rainy season (January to May) but one should always take precautionary measures. Consult your local GP for preventative malaria prophylaxis. Use insect repellents, sleep under mosquito nets and during the day wear light long sleeved clothing.

WEATHER

The Chobe region has two very distinct seasons and experiences hot, wet summer and cool, dry winters.

The rainfall period occurs November to April and daytime temperatures during this period average at 35 degrees Celsius.

During May to September the days are moderate, but the mornings and evenings are cold. Humidity in the Chobe area is low.

WHAT TO PACK

- Summer months are hot and humid. Cool cotton clothing advised
- Comfortable walking shoes
- Sun hat, sunglasses and sunblock
- Cameras and extra SD Cards and binoculars
- Light, neutral coloured clothing
- Bathing suit
- Warm jackets essential in winter (May - Oct)
- Beanie and gloves - the mornings are cold during winter
