An oasis under the stars, in the driest desert in the world

LOCATION

San Pedro de Atacama, Northern Chile. An oasis located at an altitude of 2,500 meters, in a geographic area showcasing some of the highest peaks in the Andes Mountains, as well as the famous Atacama Desert, known as the driest desert in the world. Considered to be the archaeological capital of Chile, Atacama is privileged by beautiful landscapes and eternally clear blue skies.

INSPIRATION

Nayara Alto Atacama is the result of the humble dream of a Chilean Family, inspired by the magnificence of this land that seemed from another world. Dedicating years strengthening ties with the local communities, to change the way hospitality was presented in the region. Architects and designers collaborated to create a lodge in peaceful harmony with the natural surroundings. The imposing mountain peaks that surround the lodge will give you a panorama of infinitely varying chromatic colors throughout the day. All followed by the total darkness and silence of the desert night, lit by a countless number of stars.

HOW TO GET THERE

Upon arrival at Santiago International Airport (SCL), take a domestic 2-hour flight to connect with Calama City (CJC), 1,670 Km north. Calama Airport is the beginning of the Nayara Alto Atacama Experience, followed by a scenic 1-hour drive through the desert, leading you to the oasis of the Hotel. The property is located in its own green oasis, only 3 km away from the village of San Pedro.

EXPERIENCES

Our mainly local and experienced guides will take you through salt flats, lagoons, mountains, geysers and countless breathtaking landscapes. An extensive variety of excursions are available, from trekking, bicycle tours, mountain climbing and the unique stargazing/astronomy experience with our very own private telescope, being the Atacama Desert one of the best places on earth for such activities. We always travel in small groups and we leave no trace. Our commitment is to protect the desert for future generations.
