ARTISTIC HERITAGE

Once the home of Gian Paolo Barbieri, the celebrated Italian fashion photographer who collaborated with some of the world's leading magazines and designers, Mango House Seychelles LXR Hotels & Resorts carries a story of artistry and discovery.

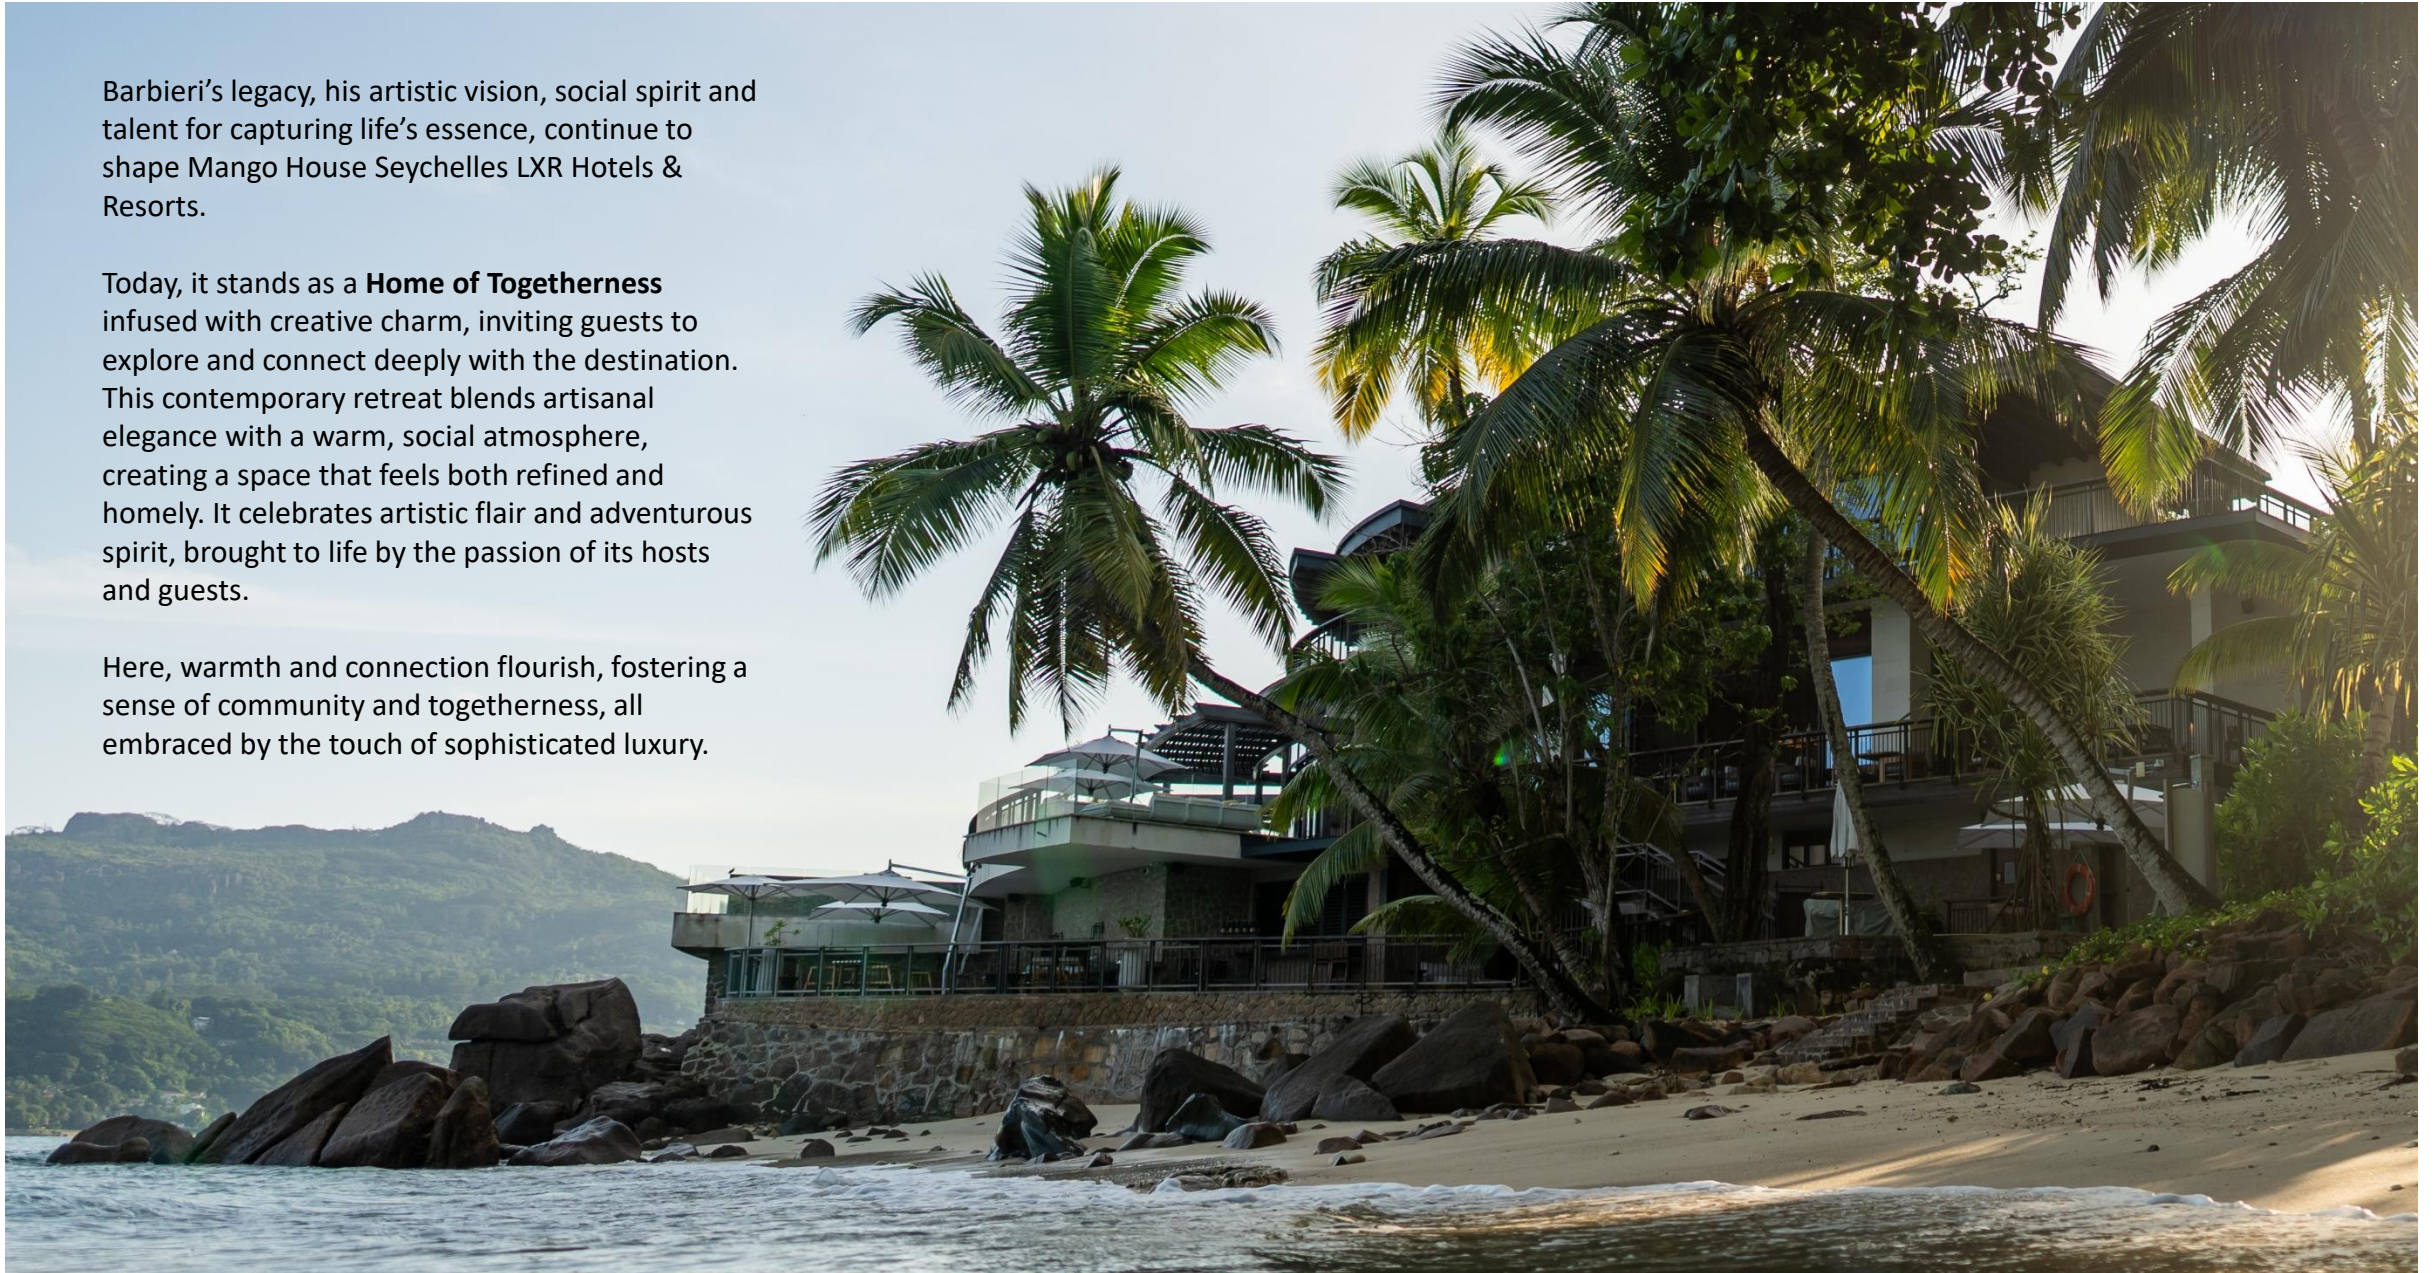

During his travels and photoshoots, Barbieri discovered Seychelles, its breathtaking nature, vibrant culture and rich traditions. Captivated by the beauty of a house shaded by a majestic mango tree, he made it his home. That home became known as Mango House, a name that endures to this day.

Barbieri's legacy, his artistic vision, social spirit and talent for capturing life's essence, continue to shape Mango House Seychelles LXR Hotels & Resorts.

Today, it stands as a Home of Togetherness infused with creative charm, inviting guests to explore and connect deeply with the destination. This contemporary retreat blends artisanal elegance with a warm, social atmosphere, creating a space that feels both refined and homely. It celebrates artistic flair and adventurous spirit, brought to life by the passion of its hosts and guests.

Here, warmth and connection flourish, fostering a sense of community and togetherness, all embraced by the touch of sophisticated luxury.
