PERMACULTURE TOUR

SUMMER 1 September – 30 April

WINTER 1 May – 31 August

Permaculture is a design system for creating productive, ecologically stable landscapes and communities. It is a management strategy which assesses the available natural resources and the state of the environment of a space (water cycle, nutrient cycle, succession, and energy flow), assimilates the human needs within that community, and deliberately integrates various elements to nurture a diverse, healthy, and ever-growing ecosystem. With a regenerative mindset, Permaculture can help change our human impact to one of positive contribution with lasting, productive action. Evolving from the consumer driven era to one where we consciously promote life in all her forms, naturally leading to a state of abundance. Come visit our Permaculture Farm to learn more about how you can incorporate some of these lessons to your environment and daily life.
