—— A typical Day on Safari ——

A TYPICAL DAY ON SAFARI

While every guest at Potato Bush Camp can tailor their activities to their taste, the days generally follow the below format more or less ...

05:30 - Wake-up with coffees / teas.

06:00 - Breakfast.

06:30 - Morning activity: canoeing is excellent before it gets too hot, or an early game drive can catch sight of cats & other predators before they rest up, or a walk to take in the smaller and often missed intimacy of the African bush.

12:00 - Lunch.

13:00 - Siesta / relaxation.

15:30 - Afternoon Tea.

16:00 - Afternoon activity, a good time for fishing, Potato Bush offers some of the finest Tiger fishing in the world. Or head off by vehicle to enjoy sundowners then a night drive to see nocturnal species not seen in the day like honey badger, porcupine or the elusive Giant Eagle Owl or Pels Fishing Owl.

19:30 - Drinks around the camp fire.

20:00 - Dinner.
