Experience Pafuri

Discover the unparalleled beauty and rich culture of Pafuri with RETURN Africa. Nestled in the northernmost part of Kruger National Park, our collection offers an extraordinary adventure in one of Africa's most pristine and diverse ecosystems. Perfect for group travel, whether it's a family reunion, corporate retreat, or a getaway with friends, Pafuri promises an unforgettable experience.

Pafuri Camp

Our flagship camp features 19 luxury tents with stunning views of the Luvuvhu river. Enjoy the comfort of en-suite bathrooms, indoor and outdoor showers, and private decks.

Unmatched Experience

Pafuri offers a pristine and remote wildness, allowing groups to immerse themselves in arguably one of South Africa's most biodiverse regions, with rich wildlife, incredible birding and stunning landscapes.

Cultural Immersion

Located in the Makuleke Contractual Park, Pafuri offers a unique opportunity to delve into local cultures and histories. Highlights like Thulamela Ruins enrich visitors' understanding of the region's history.

Tailored Activities

From guided walking safaris to game drives, Pafuri offers a variety of customisable activities that cater to different interests, making it perfect for group bonding and exploration.

Exclusive Use Options

Pafuri Camp offers exclusive use for groups, when booking 16 tents or more, ensuring privacy and a personalised experience in an intimate and secluded setting.

Luxury In Nature

The camp combines eco-friendly luxury with the raw beauty of Pafuri, providing comfort and relaxation after a day of adventure, making it ideal for groups seeking both excitement and serenity.

What you need to know:

Conferencing - Pafuri offers facilities designed to blend seamlessly with its natural surroundings. The venue can accommodate intimate to large groups, providing a private and tranquil setting for meetings, events and conferences.

Accommodation - Pafuri Camp can accommodate a total of 52 guests across 19 tents. This includes 7 family tents for up to four people each, 12 double tents for 2 people each. Additionally, Baobab Hill House provides 4 bedrooms, accommodating an extra 8 guests or suppliers. Pafuri Walking Safaris, available from April to October, feature 8 glamping tents that can sleep up to 16 people.

Food & Beverage - Pafuri can cater to various dietary requirements, including vegetarian, vegan, halaal, kosher, banting, gluten-free, and lactose intolerant. While Pafuri strives to accommodate food preferences, certain items may not be locally available due to the remote location. A visit to Pafuri to discuss the menu with the head chef is highly recommended. Any modifications to the provided menus will be discussed and quoted accordingly. The camp has a well-stocked bar, and should wine or champagnes be brought in, a corkage fee of R150 is applied, limited to a maximum of one dozen (12) bottles.

Solar Power - The Pafuri Collection operate primarily on a self-sustaining solar farm, emphasising their commitment to eco-friendliness.

Connectivity - Due to the remote location of Pafuri, there is no South African cellular reception, and guests with roaming may connect to the Mozambican network, please note, this may incur significant data charges. However, complimentary Wi-Fi is available in the main area of Pafuri Camp as well as at Baobab Hill House for guests to stay connected.
