

SHIMUNGWE LODGE

Nestled on a curve of the seasonal Timbavati River, Shimungwe is your top choice for relaxed, all-inclusive 4-star family safaris, and intimate getaways in the Greater Kruger National Park area. This intimate, secluded lodge allows for the indulgent enjoyment of every luxury, guided game drives, fantastic birding, and outstanding Big Five game viewing.

Once a private residence reserved only for invited guests, Shimungwe lends itself well to exclusive company, single travelers and families. The lodge accommodates just eight people ensuring personalized hospitality and outstanding attention to detail.

Enjoy excellent game viewing opportunities from your suite and the game viewing deck overlooking a waterhole. Relax around the swimming pool or communal lounge and enjoy sublime local cuisine both indoors and al fresco around a blazing fire. All Suites are positioned to afford privacy.

A Typical Day on Safari

- A typical day in the bush starts off with a wake up call at around 05h30 am, depending on the time of year.
- A delicious cup of coffee or tea awaits you on the deck of the main lodge area before you depart on your game drive.
- The excitement of tracking down the early animal risers is briefly interrupted by a sunrise stop, breaking for coffee / tea and a light snack before continuing your adventure. You will return to the lodge at around 09h00 to freshen up before enjoying a tasty brunch with a choice of continental and hot breakfast.
- Afternoon high tea is served at around 15h30 with a selection of sweet and savory treats. The afternoon game drive departs shortly thereafter in search of the Big-5. A sunset stop for a refreshing drink allows for spectacular photographic opportunities of the setting African Sun (weather permitting). The search for nocturnal creatures continues into the early evening before returning to the lodge at around 19h30.
- Upon your return, a welcome drink will await your arrival. Thereafter you may either choose to freshen up or make your way to the bar area for a drink before enjoying dinner beautifully laid out under the African Canvas of stars.
