Cutty Sark Hotel

Escape to the revitalized Cutty Sark Hotel, an iconic lakeside retreat gracefully positioned on the tranquil shores of the majestic Lake Kariba. Steeped in history, dating back to the 1960s, this beloved destination has been rejuvenated to offer a delightful blend of comfort and adventure. Choose from a variety of well-appointed accommodations, including cozy hotel rooms perfect for couples and spacious self-catering apartments ranging from one to four bedrooms, ideal for families and groups seeking a home away from home. Wake to the gentle lapping of the lake and the chorus of African birdsong, with breathtaking vistas of Lake Kariba, the world's largest man-made lake, stretching before you. Embrace the vibrant local culture, perhaps exploring bustling markets, or simply bask in the golden hues of a spectacular Kariba sunset. Days can be filled with thrilling fishing expeditions, leisurely boat cruises across the shimmering waters, and opportunities to witness the abundant wildlife that graces the lake's shores. Cutty Sark offers a truly enchanting lakeside escape, promising both relaxation and a wealth of memorable experiences.
