DINING

"To eat is a necessity, but to eat intelligently is an art."

- La Rochefoucauld -

A Continental and Full English breakfast option is available, for your convenience, at Auberge Daniella. Breakfast is to be booked in advance and is served from 08:00am until 10:00am

Franschhoek is a culinary haven boasting a diverse array of dining experiences. From elegant fine-dining establishments to relaxed bistros and farm-to-table eateries, the town offers something for every palate.

Many restaurants emphasize locally sourced ingredients, highlighting the region's fresh produce and artisanal products. Whether you seek a multi-course tasting menu at a renowned restaurant or a casual lunch with scenic views, Franschhoek delivers unforgettable culinary moments.

Restaurants range from Michelin-starred establishments like La Colombe and Protégé, known for their innovative and modern cuisine, to more laid-back options like Reuben's and French Connection, offering classic dishes with a local twist.

Visitors can also explore the culinary delights at wine estates like Haute Cabrière and Mont Rochelle, which feature both fine dining and casual eateries amidst stunning vineyard landscapes.

The town's commitment to farm-to-table dining ensures that fresh, seasonal ingredients are at the heart of many menus, creating a vibrant and authentic dining experience.

WINERIES

"The only regret in life, is that I did not drink more wine."

- Ernest Hemingway -

Franschhoek is world renowned for its stunning wine estates and rich French Huguenot heritage.

Several wine farms in Franschhoek offer a range of experiences, from intimate tastings to expansive vineyard views. Many farms boast award-winning wines, particularly Pinot Noir, Shiraz, and Méthode Cap Classique (MCC) sparkling wines. Visitors can enjoy wine tastings, cellar tours, gourmet meals, and scenic picnics. The area's history as a Huguenot settlement is evident in the architecture and culture, adding to the charm of the wine region.

Franschhoek's wine estates are a major draw for tourists, with about 45 farms dotting the valley.

These estates cater to diverse tastes, with some specializing in family-friendly experiences like Le Pommier, offering dedicated play areas. Others, like Boschendal, showcase a long history of winemaking with farm-to-table dining and activities like horseback riding.

The combination of excellent wines, scenic beauty, and a unique cultural heritage makes Franschhoek a must-visit destination for wine enthusiasts and those seeking a taste of South Africa's French influence.
