- Storytelling and cultural connection at Kinara's two fire pits

WILDLIFE

Kinara sits within an open, unfenced wilderness, home to resident Big Five populations and frequent visits from hippos, hyenas, and passing lions, leopards and Black Rhino. Rich birdlife and strong game viewing continue year-round, with the Great Migration adding a further, seasonal spectacle as the herds move through the reserve.

EXPERIENCES

- Guided game drives in custom-built Land Cruisers, including opportunities to track the Big Five
- Bush breakfasts and lunches in the open savannah
- Sundowners at golden hour and stargazing beneath open skies
- Cultural experiences with members of the Maasai community, including traditional beadwork with local artisans
- Photography guidance in the Discovery Lounge, with Sony cameras and lenses available for guest use
- Curated wine and cheese tastings, and visits to Kinara Farm
- Spa treatments and wellness rituals at Olgilai Wellness
- Private in-suite dining and fireside evenings
- Guided birdwatching and nature walks around the camp
- Sunrise hot-air balloon safaris over the plains, available at an additional cost
- Padel court, opening at the end of 2026

COMMUNITY & CONSERVATION EXPERIENCES

- Visits to the Kinara farm and conservation immersion experiences
- Traditional beadwork and craft workshops with local Maasai artisans
- Guided community and sustainability engagement

DINING

Kinara offers two dining spaces: Asili, the main restaurant, serving farm-to-table menus rooted in East African flavours, and Under the Acacia, a poolside restaurant and bar for lighter fare and fireside sundowners. A wine cellar and cheese room support tastings, and in-suite dining is available throughout the stay.

WELLNESS

Olgilai Wellness offers treatments drawn from locally sourced botanicals, including the signature A Journey Inward and Calm of Kinara rituals, alongside shorter treatments such as River's Welcome and The Canopy. Camp facilities also include a gym, temperature-controlled pool, steam room, sauna, cold plunge, hot tub, and yoga deck.

SUSTAINABILITY & COMMUNITY

Locally sourced materials & Maasai craftsmanship • Kinara Farm • Solar and water conservation • artisan community partnerships • conservation planting programme

ACCESS

Fly into Nairobi's Jomo Kenyatta International Airport (NBO), then take a scheduled bush flight from Wilson Airport (around 45–60 minutes) to OI Kiombo or Musiara airstrip, roughly 45 minutes from camp by road. Flights can be booked directly with Safarilink or Air Kenya.

- First scheduled flights typically depart Wilson Airport around 7:00–7:30am; last flights around 2:30–4:00pm, depending on airline and season
- Road transfer from Nairobi to the Mara takes five to six hours; self-drive is not permitted within the reserve
- Transfer from JKIA to Wilson Airport (about twenty minutes) is not included in the rate, but can be arranged
- Return transfers between OI Kiombo or Musiara airstrip and camp are included
- A passport valid at least six months beyond the return date, with two blank pages, and a Kenyan Electronic Travel Authorisation (eTA), are required
- Soft duffel bags are recommended; luggage allowance is 15kg per person on scheduled flights, 20kg on private charters, with excess charged separately

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Malaria - Risk in the Mara is generally low; guests are advised to consult a travel clinic around eight weeks ahead of travel. Suites are sprayed each evening as a precaution, and insect repellent and long sleeves are recommended after dark.

Yellow Fever - Requirements depend on a traveller's departure and transit countries. Guests should confirm current guidance with a travel clinic ahead of departure.

Drinking Water - Bottled water is provided throughout camp and on every game drive; tap water is not for drinking.

Medical Care - A resident nurse is based at camp, with emergency evacuation available through AMREF Flying Doctors. Comprehensive travel and medical insurance, including evacuation cover, is strongly recommended.

SEASONS

Migration & Dry Season (JUL–OCT) Peak period for Mara River crossings; the reserve is at its driest and busiest.

Long Rains (MID MAR–END MAY) The herds begin drifting north; landscapes turn lush and quiet.

Short Rains (LATE OCT–MID DEC) Brief, generous showers, usually followed by clear skies.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Check-in from 12:00pm; check-out by 10:00am
- Cashless property — major cards accepted; Kenyan Shilling (KES) is the local currency
- Complimentary Wi-Fi and mobile reception throughout camp
- All dietary requirements can be catered for with advance notice
- Children aged six and above welcome; ages 6–17 receive the child rate when sharing with two adults; suites cannot be occupied by children unaccompanied
- Main pathways and shared spaces are wheelchair accessible; accessible suites available on request
- Maasai Mara National Reserve Park fees are charged separately, per person per day 6.00am – 6.00pm, and are best settled ahead of travel
- Pets and drones are not permitted within the reserve; night game drives are not permitted
