welcome to emanya

emanya means stone.

Inspired by the white stone, seasonal water and endless horizons of Etosha, emanya brings together contemporary African design, warm hospitality and the beauty of northern Namibia. Located just 20 minutes from the eastern entrance of Etosha National Park, emanya offers a comfortable base for safari adventures and a welcoming place to return to. White walls, soft tones, locally dressed stone and reflective water create a setting that feels both contemporary and deeply connected to its surroundings.

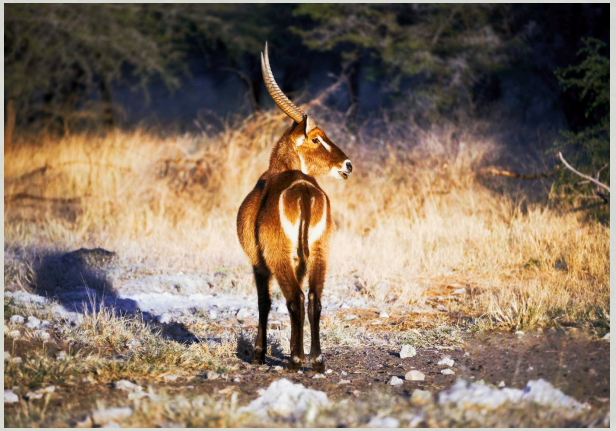

Modern in style. African at heart.
