Nare Villa's setting is one of its most memorable features.

Positioned above a private waterhole, the villa allows guests to remain connected to the bush even between safari activities. From the deck, outdoor lounge or pool area, there is always the possibility of watching wildlife move through the landscape, drink at the water's edge or pause in the shade nearby.

This creates a safari experience that continues throughout the day, not only on game drives, but in the quiet moments spent at the villa itself.

Private Safari Experience

Nare Villa includes a private game vehicle and dedicated field guide, giving guests the freedom to experience Madikwe Game Reserve in a way that suits their group.

Twice-daily private game drives are included, with sunrise and sunset stops forming part of the safari rhythm. Drive times and durations can be tailored where possible, making the villa especially well suited to families, multi-generational groups and guests who value flexibility.

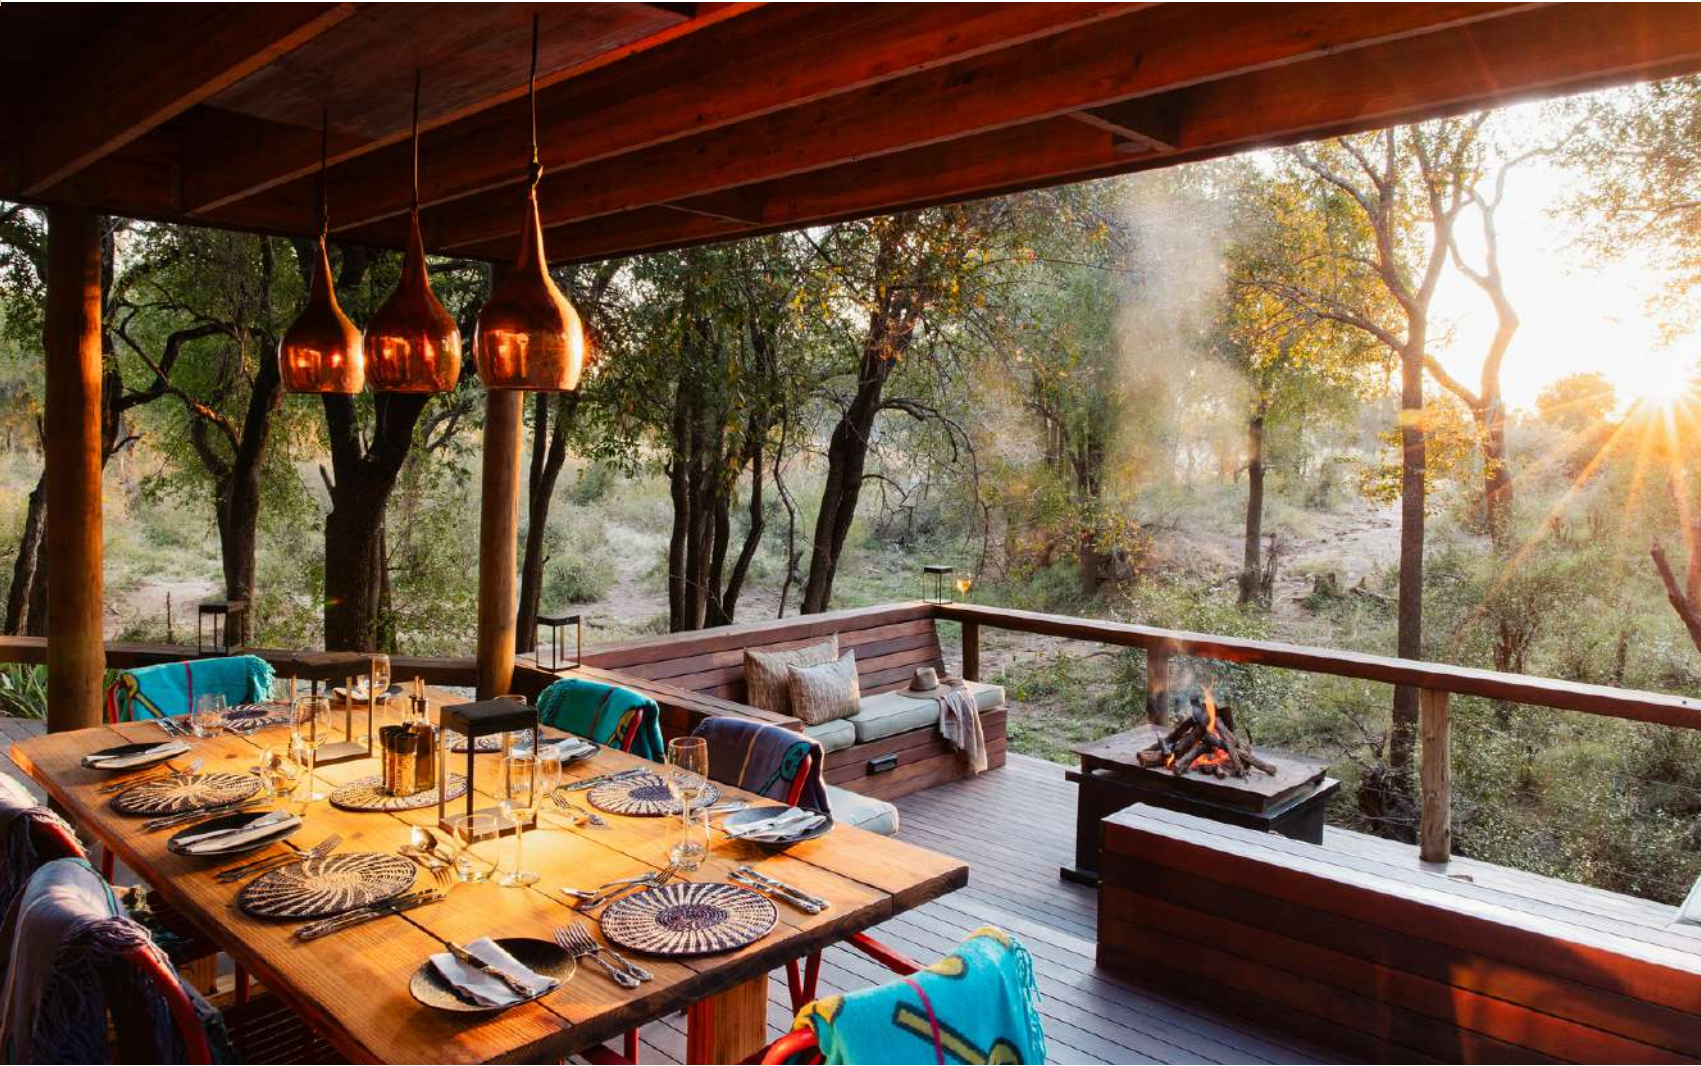

Children of all ages are welcome at Nare Villa and may join game drives in the villa’s private vehicle.

Private Hospitality

A stay at Nare Villa includes a private hospitality team, including a dedicated chef and host.

Dining is relaxed, personal and flexible. Meals can be shaped around your group’s schedule, whether that means an early breakfast after a morning drive, a long lunch beside the pool, or dinner under the stars on the villa deck.

With private indoor and outdoor dining spaces, Nare Villa allows guests to enjoy the full Jaci’s food and hospitality experience in a setting that feels entirely their own.
