ART GALLERIES

Nestled within the rich tapestry of art in Franschhoek are several exceptional galleries, each offering a unique artistic experience. AITY Gallery, founded in 2012, is a contemporary art gallery in the heart of the Franschhoek Valley, showcasing a diverse range of art forms and unique handcrafted items while promoting experimentation and innovation within the art world. The Pigcasso Art Gallery at Farm Sanctuary SA, founded in 2016, introduces you to the extraordinary resident, 'Pigcasso,' the renowned painting pig. In collaboration with Joanne Lefson, Pigcasso has created unrivalled artworks, aspiring to connect our food, animals, and the urgent issue of climate change. The Gallery at Grande Provence stands as one of South Africa's most beautiful and prestigious galleries, custom-designed to showcase contemporary art in various media, with a notable emphasis on sculpture. EBONY/CURATED, a leading South African gallery spanning three locations, two of which are in Franschhoek, highlights contemporary and notable modern artworks.

MUSEUMS

The historic Franschhoek Valley is home to a treasure trove of captivating museums and cultural experiences. Begin your journey at the Huguenot Memorial Museum, paying homage to the 17th-century French Huguenots and narrating their story within the broader context of global refugees. The museum's galleries delve into Huguenot history, while an annex hosts exhibitions on Franschhoek, Fynbos, Khoisan, and Huguenot families. Just 12 km from Franschhoek's village center, automotive enthusiasts will discover the must-visit Franschhoek Motor Museum, which houses over a century of automotive history in a collection exceeding 220 vehicles. Lastly, delve into the captivating world of perfumery at the South African Perfume Museum, located just a stone's throw from the Huguenot Memorial Museum. Antique treasures, some dating back to Roman times, and cutting-edge exhibitions await, all deeply rooted in the Kumanov family's centuries-long heritage as perfume importers and manufacturers. Experience the art of perfumery with Perfume Prive Workshop's expert-guided creation of personalized, high-quality signature scents. Explore these cultural gems in Franschhoek.

WINE TASTING

Franschhoek's wineries offer unique experiences and exceptional wines. La Motte, nestled in the picturesque valley, combines quality wines with traditional cuisine and a historical charm. Paserene stands out with meticulous artistry in both labels and wines, tailored for the refined palate. Atlas Swift explores the multisensory aspect of wine, focusing on Chardonnays from different regions, offering diverse expressions. Klein Goederust, under Siguqa family ownership since 2019, invites you to taste in their historic 1905 building. GlenWood's success story began in 1984, boasting Platter 5-star Chardonnay and gourmet sushi pairings in a scenic oak tree terrace. Boekenhoutskloof, established in 1776, cherishes indigenous Cape Beech trees and offers an array of carefully crafted wines.

CAP CLASSIQUE WINERIES

Embark on a sparkling journey through the heart of Franschhoek, where the world of bubbly beckons with open arms. Experience the joy of bubbly with Colmant, tailor-making The Bubbly Experience for passionate enthusiasts. Delve into the captivating worlds of Cap Classique and Champagne, expanding your knowledge through unique opportunities. Choose from various packages, including sabrage experiences, cellar tours, and in-depth tastings with their winemaker. The historical backdrop of Haute Cabriere dates back to 1694 when Pierre Jourdan was granted land in Olifantshoek, now Franschhoek, naming it Cabrière. In the early 1980s, Achim von Arnim acquired a portion of this land, focused on producing Champagne-style wines. Enjoy guided cellar tours with sabrage demonstrations and delightful wine tastings, a remarkable 90-minute experience. Le Lude's tasting room combines tasteful and stylish design inspired by contemporary French aesthetics. Using light and space, it creates an inviting atmosphere with soft green paneling. Elevate your tasting experience with concise canapé menus and options for morning and afternoon tea.

MICROBREWERIES

In the heart of Franschhoek, Tuk Tuk Microbrewery, the sole microbrewery along the main road, invites both locals and visitors to "park off for a pint" and delight in exceptional beers and delectable food. This beloved landmark offers a truly distinctive and laid-back dining experience. Just 3km from town on the R45 Main Road, Hey Joe's Brewing Co., a Belgian-inspired Abbey-style brewery, proudly adheres to artisanal beer brewing. Their beer is crafted in a 1961 copper brewhouse imported from Belgium, accompanied by a curated menu drawing inspiration from Belgian cuisine and designed to cater to vegetarians, vegans, and children. Situated 8km from the village centre, the Franschhoek Beer Company boasts picturesque oak trees, rolling lawns, a tasting room with breathtaking views of the brewery, and the town's finest burgers. Their world-class beer is meticulously handcrafted on-site, using pristine mountain spring waters and top-quality imported hops and malt, ensuring an unparalleled beer experience.
