Fiume Bush Camp – Fact Sheet

Location
Region: Otjozondjupa
District: Grootfontein

Access: 75 km north-east of Grootfontein via the D2844 from the Berg Aukas turnoff.
Directions: Enter through the gate flanked by stone walls on the left-hand side of the road. From the gate, continue ±3 km to the bush camp parking area.
Travel Advisory: Guests must use a 4x4 vehicle with high clearance due to gravel roads and sand tracks leading into the property.

Community & Culture
Home to a small community of Ju/'hoansi San Bushmen, historically nomadic hunters and gatherers.
This family unit preserves ancient traditions while embracing aspects of modern life.
Unlike “living museums” near shanty towns, the San at Fiume Bush Camp enjoy freedom, dignity, and autonomy, presenting their culture authentically.
Guests experience cultural practices such as bush walks, food gathering, and traditional dances in a respectful, immersive environment.

Fiume Bush Camp offers guests a rare opportunity to reconnect with nature while experiencing the living heritage of the Ju/'hoansi San in an authentic, dignified setting.
