Nsefu Camp, the first photographic safari camp in Zambia, sits in a prime game-viewing area of South Luangwa National Park. Overlooking a wide bend of the Luangwa River, its six rondavels offer classic safari charm with modern comforts. Game drives and walking safaris explore the rich wildlife of the Nsefu Sector, known for its high concentrations of predators and diverse landscapes.

Climate

The Emerald Season (January–March) is a time of regrowth, with breeding birds, newborn wildlife, and mostly nighttime rainfall. April and May bring clear, warm days, occasional storms, lush green grass, and migrating birds departing. June to August is the dry winter season with cool nights, warm days, and easier game viewing as the grass dies back. From September to December, temperatures rise, rains begin, new growth emerges, and newborn animals appear, accompanied by brief insect bursts and humid conditions.
