TIME + TIDE KAKULI

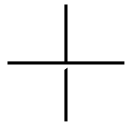

HIGHLIGHTS

- + Amazing views of the Luangwa River
- + Prolific leopard sightings
- + *Carmine bee-eater colony
nearby*

Perched high above the Luangwa River, Time + Tide Kakuli offers impressive vistas of the river and its many visitors below. Designed to celebrate the panoramic riverside setting, the rooms have a long, low profile and a contemporary design. The chitenge (main area) overlooks a permanent waterhole and the river beyond, promising game viewing right from the comfort of camp. Take in the sweeping views of the river and listen to the calls of nearby hippos while giraffes and elephants stop by for a drink. Slow down, unwind and fully immerse into this extraordinary, wild land.

Great All Season

- + Epic leopard and lion sightings
- + Iconic river crossings of large breeding herds
- + Exceptional wildlife photography in a wild, crowd-free setting
- + Home to several endemic species

October to April is the best time of year to see endangered wild dogs.

Many migrant bird species are still enjoying the abundance of South Luangwa.

October and November are great for predator action as animals gather at dwindling water sources.

September to November is the best time of year to see the iconic carmine bee-eaters nesting in the dry riverbanks.

July to October is peak season for our Sleepout Under the Stars.

The walking safari season starts in earnest, running from May to mid November.

ACTIVITIES

Home to the original walking safari, South Luangwa is the perfect destination for adventurous and active travellers. With our award-winning guiding team, you can explore as you please, discovering the diverse tapestry of habitats this remarkable valley holds.

During the dry season, Time + Tide Kakuli is an ideal base for exploring on foot and by vehicle. Meaning “old buffalo bull,” Kakuli was the nickname given to Norman Carr, the pioneer of Zambia’s walking safaris. The area is renowned for leopard and lion sightings, and it’s one of the best places in the park to see the iconic carmine bee-eaters. Expect large herds of elephants and rivers alive with hippos and crocs.

WINE + DINE

Amid the wild bush setting, our chefs craft meals that are both thoughtful and delicious, using seasonal local ingredients to celebrate Zambia's vibrant flavours, produce and traditions. From sunrise breakfasts and coffee in the wild to scenic sundowners and fireside nightcaps, dining here is as much about the moments as the meals. By blending Zambia's rich cultural and natural heritage with inspiration from around the world, we create experiences that feel both familiar and distinctly Zambian.
