safari SUMMARY

- Experience three privately owned properties, while covering three very different, but renowned ecosystems.
- Encounter the tribal inhabitants of the areas, whose authentic, traditional and colourful tribal ways remain relatively untouched.
- On Borana Conservancy, enjoy uninterrupted game viewing and discover how poachers are kept at bay by the Anti-poaching Team.
- On Olderkesi Conservancy, learn from the renowned guide, Calvin Cottar, about the intricacies of the Mara ecosystem and the wildlife and people found therein.
- Considered the best beach in Kenya, Diani offers all of the activities of a beach visit in the seclusion of a lavish, opulent private villa.

LENGISHU

Borana Conservancy, Laikipia

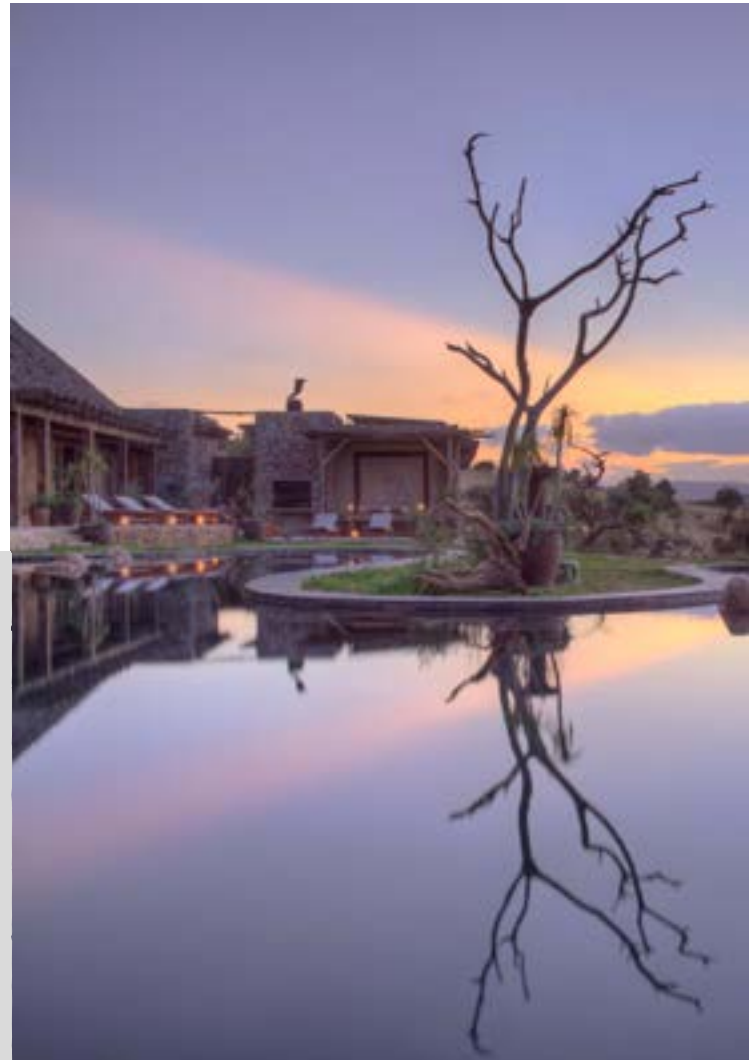

Nestled into a ridge at the heart of Kenya's 32,000-acre Borana Conservancy, is a luxury home styled and decorated with an appreciation for Masai culture. Lengishu is built with locally sourced materials and designed to blend in with the surrounding environment. Expertly crafted by local artisans, the house features beautiful exposed Kenyan timber work while stone for the floors and intricate design features were excavated from the site itself. The main house is central to the design with a large entrance hall leading to a study and dining room. Four cottages, housing six bedrooms, are scattered around the main house, facing East in order to enjoy the sunrise.

Lengishu offers guests a gym, billiard table, infinity pool, studio and pétanque pitch, as well as the opportunity to explore the surrounding conservancy and its conservation efforts.

MAKING A difference

- 100% solar system
- Rain water harvesting
- Grey water management
- On-site vegetable garden
- Borana Conservancy operates a mobile health clinic and supports a number of schools
- Conservation of rhino, lion, Grevy zebra, giraffe
- Sustainably sourced firewood
- Building built entirely from sustainable local materials

COTTAR'S
BUSH
VILLA

The 7,000 acre untouched Cottar's Private Conservancy provides tranquillity and an abundance of wildlife.

Cottar's Bush Villa recently won the World Travel Award for Africa's Leading Luxury Private Villa 2016 and is Global Eco-sphere Retreat accredited. With sweeping views over the Masai Mara and Serengeti, the exclusive private bush villa offers an abundance of wildlife, a guarantee of privacy, and the highest standards of professional guiding in a luxurious and elegant safari environment. Built by hand using indigenous and eco-friendly materials, complete with a private swimming pool, Cottar's Bush Villa provides luxury private stay for up to 12 guests. The villa is tastefully, yet minimally decorated with furniture specifically designed for each space.

MAKING A difference

- Solar electricity system
- On-site vegetable garden
- Sustainably sourced firewood
- World Travel Award for Africa's Leading Luxury Private Villa
- Global Eco-sphere Retreat accredited

- Raptor Rehabilitation Centre

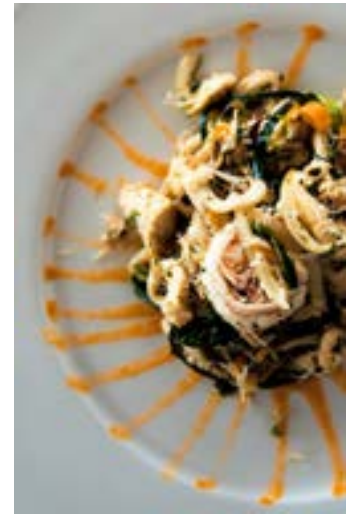

ALFAJIRI VILLAS

Alfajiri Villas provide privacy, exclusivity and luxury on Kenya's famous Diani beach. Owner run and hosted, each opulent private villa has its own private swimming pool and access to the beach and warm water of the Indian Ocean. With delicious cuisine, the menus have a Mediterranean influence, with fresh produce sourced from local farms and of course the sea. Internationally recognised service is 24/7 and provided by a designated butler.

Enjoy the magnificent views and swim in the pool of your private villa, walk on the ten kilometre-long white sandy beach, relax and enjoy a massage, go snorkelling on the edge of the coral reef, play golf at the 18-hole course nearby, visit the Shimba Hills National Reserve or explore the local craft markets. Guests can do as little or as much as they like, hosts Marica and Fabrizio plan individual daily itineraries for their guests.

MAKING A difference

- Winner of 'Best Safari Cuisine' and 'Best Marine Safari Experience' in the Safari Awards
- Winner of Africa's Leading Luxury Hotel Villa in the World Travel Awards

THE END

The end of the Cheli & Peacock Family Affair Safari.

Mid-season Green Season High Season

For 35 years, Cheli & Peacock Safaris, has operated East African safaris tailored to every traveller's needs. In some cases, our adventurer's want some guidance, so each year we create a small group of signature itineraries to inspire wanderlust. These itineraries are more of a suggestion than a template and can be developed further by our Safari Planners, who are passionate safari experts and can advise explorers on the perfect itinerary according to their interests, group, budget and travel dates.

At the forefront of everything we do is an understanding of sustainable travel, and therefore, we partner with organisations that share our approach to preserve Africa's unique and exceptional biodiversity. We know that our travellers are now far more inclined to stay at small boutique lodges and camps that are giving back to the local community and have a minimal effect on the surrounding environment. We appreciate that while vistas and wildlife are at the forefront of every safari experience, so is the modern visitor's desire to engage, at a deeper level, with the destination and its peoples. We do as much as we can to ensure that each of our guests has nothing but a positive effect on the places they visit, supporting local education programmes, conservation initiatives and development projects that have a lasting effect on those micro-economies, communities and ecosystems.
