

YOUR GUIDE

CHARLEY SWYNNERTON

Charley Swynnerton was born in Botswana and grew up in East Africa. Coming from a long line of game wardens, naturalists, hunters and guides, she has a natural love for the wild. Charley has been fortunate enough to have managed camps in some surreal African locations, private chef for mobile safaris, knowledge on wildlife and birds, trained chefs and re-done menus for some of the top safari companies throughout Africa. You will find that she can't get enough of this continent's different landscapes, cultures, languages, wildlife and food.

Join Charley on a cultural experience that will take you into the depths of African history and bring to light some of the most amazing cuisines, flavours and spices that most have yet to discover.

Exploring and unveiling the traditions and secrets of Africa - it will be a surreal and tantalizing food safari experience.

Taste the wild.
