The Bushcamp Company operates six intimate and exclusive bushcamps and a safari lodge, Mfuwe Lodge, in one of the last unspoilt wilderness areas in Africa – the South Luangwa National Park, Zambia. Our remote bushcamps provide an unmatched wilderness experience in the very place where the African walking safari was pioneered.

KUYENDA BUSHCAMP

There's something undeniably special about Kuyenda. Set beneath shady trees by the Manzi River, it may be the simplest of our camps but Kuyenda embodies the authentic charm of old Africa with its cluster of traditional thatched grass huts and back-to-nature feel. As for the wildlife, you hardly need look for it as it will come to you. Can accommodate up to eight guests.

CHAMILANDU BUSHCAMP

There's nothing quite like waking up at Chamilandu. Early morning views don't get much better – the rippling waters of the Luangwa River, the gentle rise of the Chindeni Hills and a vast African sky – especially when you're lying in a four poster bed in a stilted tree-house. You don't even need to leave your bed to see the wildlife. Can accommodate up to six guests.

CHINDENI BUSHCAMP

Chindeni lies in an enviable location on the edge of a serene lagoon where hippo chortle and elephant wallow. With its vaulted canvas 'rooms', private verandas and views of the Chindeni Hills, this is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful tented camps in the South Luangwa. Can accommodate up to eight guests.

BILIMUNGWE BUSHCAMP

Set beneath huge mahogany and winter-thorn trees, Bilimungwe's four raised thatched rooms have been carefully designed to ensure they provide the height of comfort whilst still retaining that authentic bushcamp feel. The elegant and stylish heart of camp is the cool, shady lounge area looking out over one of Bilimungwe's three waterholes where wildlife congregates day and night. Can accommodate up to eight guests.
