MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Asante Travel, a boutique tour operator offers authentic, luxurious and unique travel experiences to Africa and the Indian Ocean Islands. We want our clients to immerse themselves in the wondrous and adventurous. We want to ensure that with every part of their journey, they are deeply moved. That everything they experience is life changing and enriching.

Asante Travel designs tailor made experiences that submerge our clients in the beauty, magnificence and happiness of Africa. Our dedicated and passionate team want to introduce our clients to the richness of cultures, the once in a lifetime moments, the breathtaking seconds of an ever changing, ever pulsating world. Combining my love for Africa, more than 20 years' luxury travel experience, offering luxury safari experiences in Africa since 2006 and the burning passion to share the richness and beauty of this wonderful continent and surrounding islands to people across the world.

Having worked extensively in Mexico, USA and the UK, I have built up a notable reputation through repeat clients and referrals. It is upon this stable foundation that Asante Travel is focused on both Business to Business luxury travel packages. Our main aim is to expand our client base in Mexico, USA, Canada and the rest of Latin America.

Asante Travel lives and breathes quality and luxury: our clients must experience comfort and personal attention in every little detail. It is therefore of vital importance that we align with suppliers who understand and augment these values. Partners and associates who specialise in excellence and thrive on distinction.

Asante's commitment to conservation and sustainability has become a cornerstone of the business and our team takes great pride in the bridging of travelers and Africa's wild places to aid in conservation and the sustainability of its natural resources.

Asante [ah-san-teh] means thank you or gratitude in Swahili and the name is such a huge part of our amazing journey in the travel industry. We look forward to taking you on this journey with us and welcoming travelers together to the wondrous, pulsating and colourful continent of Africa.
